

Name: _____ Date: _____ Block: _____

I. Salinger's Family

- A. Born in _____ on _____.
- B. Full name: _____.
- C. Nickname: _____.
- D. Sister: _____.
- E. Mother: _____.
- F. Father: _____.
- G. Wives:
 - i. 1st wife: _____, but Salinger called her _____. She was a German _____ whom he met during _____. That is really all that we know about her.
 - ii. 2nd wife: _____ . They married in _____ and divorced in _____. He had _____ with her.
 - iii. 3rd wife: _____ . She is also his _____. Not much else is known about her because _____

H. Children:

- i. Daughter: _____ was born in _____. Salinger's relationship with her was _____ . She wrote a book about him, in which she claimed he was _____ .
- ii. Son: _____ was born in _____. Salinger's relationship with him was _____ .
- iii. From these two children, Salinger had _____ .

II. Salinger's Education

- A. Salinger was _____ interested in school. He _____ . Due to this, he was sent to _____ . That school would become the _____ for _____ in his novel.
- B. Salinger's college education was similar to his high school one. He attended _____ for a few weeks. After a long break, he attended _____ in _____ for _____ term. The longest Salinger was in college was when he attended _____ in _____. He completed _____ .

C. College Life. Salinger bragged _____

 He also claimed that he would write the “ _____
 _____.”

III. Early Publications

A. Between _____ and _____, Salinger published _____ _____ in _____, _____,
 _____, and _____
 _____. Those are _____ and _____.

B. After _____, Salinger published many _____ _____ in _____. This _____ was the one that _____

 _____.

IV. World War II

A. When America joined in the war, Salinger _____. He served with the _____ of the _____.

B. Salinger also participated in _____.

C. In _____, he was hospitalized for “ _____;”
 which is another way of saying that he suffered a _____
 _____.

V. Literary Success

A. Salinger first gained recognition with _____ _____. This was _____.
 It was published in _____.

B. He also wrote _____, published in various
 _____, _____, and
 _____.

C. His collections of short stories are: _____ in
 _____, _____ in _____, and _____ in _____.

D. When Catcher was published he finally _____

 However, he _____

 In fact, he wanted his _____ removed from _____ _____ because he was _____.

VI. Life after literary success

- A. Salinger became _____ with society. Therefore, he became a _____ in _____. He lived in a fenced-off _____ in _____, _____. He interacted very little with _____.
- B. Salinger _____ attempts to publish _____ for _____.
- C. He had _____ based on a _____ by the name of _____, _____. It was so _____ that he would not _____.
- D. There was a _____ written for The Catcher in the Rye but it was not written by Salinger. It was written by a writer named _____ under the pseudonym _____. The title was _____: _____ . Salinger filed a _____ against the author and the publishing company publishing the sequel. He was _____ in _____ the publication.

VII. Salinger's death.

- A. Salinger died on _____ at his home. He was _____ years old.
- B. There have been claims that he _____ but nothing was ever _____. It was assumed that they would be published _____. However, there has been _____ published.

VIII. The Catcher in the Rye

- A. This novel drew from other _____ Salinger had created for _____ short stories published in _____ and _____ (respectively):
“ _____ ”
and “ _____ .”
- B. The novel was published in _____ .
- C. Popularity. Since Catcher was published, it has been _____ popular. It continues to be put on _____ for _____ and _____ .
- D. Controversies. Despite the popularity, it also continues to be _____ from _____, _____, _____, and even _____. It was the _____ book _____ in schools from _____ to _____ .
- E. Banishment. The most common reasons for banishment are: _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____, _____.

_____, _____, _____
_____, _____, _____ / _____,
_____, and _____.

F. Censorship.

i. In _____, the _____ to _____ presented a shipment of Catcher as a gift.
_____ seized the shipment.
_____ released the shipment, but maintained their position that the book contained too much _____ and _____ for adolescents.

ii. In _____, _____, _____, an _____ was _____ for assigning it. She was _____, but the book was _____ from the school _____.

iii. _____ have continually asked for the book's _____ from schools. They have _____ many times. However, sometimes the _____ refused to ban it, claiming _____
_____.

Also, sometimes the book is designated as _____ _____ material.

iv. In _____, a woman leading a parents' group protesting the use of the book claimed she counted _____ uses of _____. She also claimed that the book's _____ and _____ made it part of a _____.

v. The latest banning attempt was in _____, from _____ _____ in _____. A parent,
_____, challenged the use of the book
because _____.

The school board voted _____ to _____ to keep the book in the school.

Brief reflection on the notes: _____

